

Hotel Powhatan
=

[Clifford M. Lewis,
Proprietor]

[Washington, D.C.]

Hotel Parbhatan

The White House

The Capitol

The Lobby—Hotel Powhatan

A Parlor—Hotel Powhatan

CORRESPONDENCE

November
Tenth
1914

The surrounding views will of course center your attention on Washington and Hotel Powhatan, a new, fireproof European hotel which is refined, restful, and reasonable in price.

The rapid and remarkable tendency toward the development west of the White House makes the Powhatan situation ideal. It is but a few blocks from the fashionable shopping and theatre districts, near the Public Buildings and Parks, and yet it is among quiet and aristocratic residential surroundings.

In marked contrast to the general run of modern high class hotels, provision is made to meet the moderate as well as the more elaborate demands of the traveling public. For instance: Single rooms with running water may be obtained at $1.50 and $2.00 per day. Single rooms with private bath at $2.50 and $3.00 per day. Double rooms with private bath at $4.00 per day.

Anticipating the pleasure of entertaining you at the Powhatan, we beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

Hotel Powhatan

Clifford M. Lewis

Manager.

A Corner of Restaurant—Hotel Powhatan

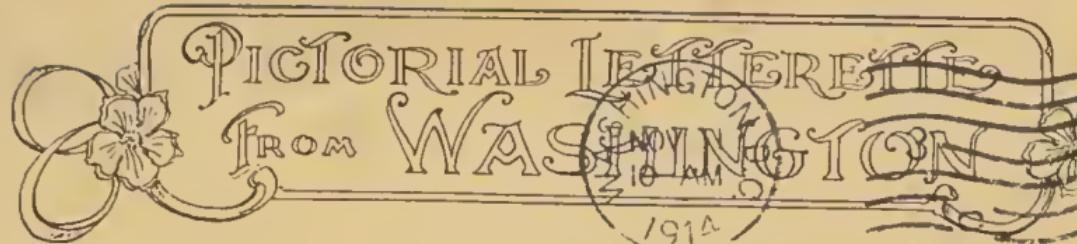

A Colonial Bedroom—Hotel Powhatan

The Union Station

Mount Vernon

Mr. Henry Chapman

1348 Pine St.,

Phila., Pa.